CALL FOR PAPERS

The Canadian Linguistic Association Inc will hold its 2006 conference as part of the Congress of the Social Sciences and Humanities at York University, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, from Saturday May 27 to Tuesday May 30, 2006. Members are invited to submit abstracts representing all areas of linguistics. Only members in good standing for 2006 may submit an abstract.

ABSTRACT REQUIREMENTS (Please read carefully: Abstracts not conforming to these requirements will be excluded from consideration.)

1. Abstracts are to be submitted on 21.6 x 27.9 cm (8 1/2 x 11 in) typewritten single-spaced pages, in size 12 font, with 1 inch margins. A completed copy of the enclosed abstract submission form must be sent along with five (5) copies of the abstract, one of which must be an original suitable for reproduction. Abstracts may be no longer than one (1) page, plus references.
2. a) A complete list of references cited in the abstract must also be submitted (also in five copies).
   b) In order to help ensure anonymity, abstracts should not contain excessive references to its author’s publications. Furthermore, the abstract itself should not contain acknowledgements for grants or to granting agencies.
   c) References in the abstract should normally be limited to published works.
3. Abstracts should contain
   a) a title;
   b) a clear and explicit statement of the research question to be examined;
   c) a clear statement of research context, including key references;
   d) an indication of the main arguments involved, including key examples, if applicable. In the case of empirical studies in progress, at least pilot results must be included;
   e) a statement of conclusions reached and an assessment of their significance.
4. Authors should identify themselves on the abstract submission form and state their name and affiliation at the top of one copy of the abstract; the other four copies must be anonymous.
5. Members are limited to one individual and one joint abstract submission.
